

Expression of Interest

Family Day Care Provider – Croppa Creek

An amazing opportunity to operate your own Family Day Care business in the heart of the Golden Triangle exists!

In conjunction with KCL Family Day Care of Inverell; Croppa Creek Store is seeking expressions of interest for a suitably qualified person to provide a Family Day Care Service 5 days per week in the Village of Croppa Creek.

Prior family day care experience is not a prerequisite. The successful applicant will possess a minimum of Cert 3 in early childhood care, along with all mandatory character checks and insurances. We will naturally seek an applicant with a kind and honest personality, with a fun and happy approach to life. They will be protective of; and engaging with the children of our staff. They will assist play, diligently supervise, and guide activities for children during the day.

Croppa Creek Store will assist with both the provision of a venue along with assisting the development of, and publicity for the service. KCL will be providing a KCL training pack and 3mths insurance free of charge as extra incentive.

Our vision is targeted towards the growth of our business, by meeting the childcare requirements of our staff; and that of our partner group - all while strengthening our core community services.

To express interest in providing this service, please send a cover letter telling us why you would be the best person for this business, along with your resume and references to ccstore@activ8.net.au , alternatively, apply in person or phone our store on 02 67545222.
